Re: Moran v. MTA Metro-North Railroad Company et al.
19-cv-3079(AT)(KHP)

Dear Judge Torres:

This office represents MTA Metro-North R.R. and the individually named MTA police officers in this case alleging violations of the Federal Employers' Liability Act and a deprivation of constitutional rights actionable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I am writing with the consent of plaintiff's counsel, Mr. George Cahill, to request an extension of time of one week, from February 7 to February 14, 2020, in which to serve and file defendants' motion for summary judgment. This is a first request for an extension of time to serve and file defendants' motion, and the extension will not affect other scheduled dates.

I have been suffering a flu-like illness for the past week and have been unable to attend to work during most of that time, which has set back work on this and other matters.

In light of this request for an additional week, plaintiff's opposition papers and defendants' reply papers, presently due on February 28 and March 13 respectively, would be due on March 6 and March 20, 2020.

Defendants thank the Court for its consideration of this application.

Respectfully yours,

GRANTED. By February 14, 2020, Defendants shall file their motion for summary judgment. By March 6, 2020, Plaintiff shall file an opposition. By March 20, 2020, Defendants shall file their reply, if any.

/s/
Steve S. Efron

SO ORDERED.
